

Get the Facts

Academic Checklist ~ Undergraduates

NOTE: This is based on a 4 year experience. If you are a transfer student, complete the requirements prior to the year you are currently at in school as soon as possible.

* indicates there is a separate Get The Facts with information on this requirement.

Year One ~

- Complete classes in the first year core
- Begin taking learning domain classes
- Begin pre-teacher education classes in spring quarter
- Take basic skills test *
- Take EDU 025
- Maintain a minimum cumulative gpa of 2.75

Year Two ~

- Complete sophomore seminar class
- Continue to take learning domain classes
- Continue to take pre-teacher education classes
- Begin taking content area or concentration courses
- Apply for advanced standing *
- Begin documenting clinical experiences in FEDS
- Begin considering possible student teaching locations
- Maintain a minimum cumulative gpa of 2.75

Year Three ~

- Complete pre-teacher education courses
- Continue to take learning domain classes
- Continue to take content area or concentration courses
- Begin taking advanced standing courses
- Apply for student teaching *
- Take content area test *
- Have conversation with advisor about endorsements
- Check on faculty recommendations for student teaching
- Maintain a minimum cumulative gpa of 2.75

Year Four ~

- Complete learning domain courses
- Complete open elective courses (if applicable)
- Complete content area and concentration courses
- Complete advanced standing courses
- Complete clinical experiences
- Check with your advisor regarding academic clearance for student teaching *
- Apply for degree conferral and commencement ceremony *
- Take APT test (Assessment of Professional Teaching) *
- Apply for certification *

