

IB CERTIFICATE

IN TEACHING AND LEARNING

DePaul University
IB Certificate in Teaching and Learning
in a Global Context
MYP and DP

Curriculum

Program Outcomes
& Curriculum Components

This certificate program includes 15 units of study that leads to eligibility for the IB certificate in teaching and learning for either the MYP or the DP.

Program Outcomes

1. Develop the knowledge and skills to teach in an IB program.
2. Understand and be able to implement the processes of instruction and assessment that take place in IB curriculum, including unit planning, traditional and performance-based assessment, and data-based decision making.
3. Learn to promote learner development using a global, transdisciplinary/interdisciplinary and inquiry-based framework.
4. Be eligible for the IB certificate in teaching and learning.

Curriculum Components

The International Baccalaureate Educator Certificate in Teaching and Learning Program at DePaul University is comprised of four courses that include:

1. IBEC Course 1: Curriculum Processes in the International Baccalaureate Programmes
2. IBEC Course 2: Assessment in the International Baccalaureate Programmes
3. IBEC Course 3: Teaching and Learning in the International Baccalaureate
4. IBEC Course 4: Professional Learning in a Global Context

Questions about our IBEC curriculum?

innovate@depaul.edu