Personal Narrative

The faculty review committee requires applicants for the Master of Science Program in Middle School Education to write a personal statement. Personal statements are used by the faculty committee to determine your fit for the program. Be sure to put your name on the personal statement. The statement should be no less than 1,000 words in length and should address the following:

1. Describe yourself as a mathematics learner.
2. Describe a time when you felt you were most effective as a mathematics teacher. Be sure to comment on what happened to the students you taught in this scenario.
3. Describe a time when you felt you were least effective as a mathematics teacher. Be sure to comment on what happened to the students you taught in this scenario.
4. Discuss your long-term goals, and how the Master of Science in Middle School Education degree fits into your long term plans.
